Code of Business Conduct for Suppliers to The Coca-Cola Company

The Coca-Cola Company* expects all of its employees to comply with the law and act ethically in all matters. We have the same expectations of our suppliers. Our Code of Business Conduct sets the basic standards for employee conduct. This Code of Business Conduct for Suppliers establishes related requirements for our suppliers. Working together, we can achieve great success by doing the right thing.

Note: This Code contains general requirements applicable to all suppliers to The Coca-Cola Company. Particular supplier contracts may contain more specific provisions addressing some of these same issues. Nothing in this Code is meant to supersede any more specific provision in a particular contract, and to the extent there is any inconsistency between this Code and any other provision of a particular contract, the other provision will control.

Conflicts of Interest

Employees of The Coca-Cola Company should act in the best interest of the Company. Accordingly, employees should have no relationship, financial or otherwise, with any supplier that might conflict, or appear to conflict, with the employee's obligation to act in the best interest of The Coca-Cola Company. For example, suppliers should not employ or otherwise make payments to any employee of The Coca-Cola Company during the course of any transaction between the supplier and the Company. Friendships outside of the course of business are inevitable and acceptable, but suppliers should take care that any personal relationship is not used to influence the Coca-Cola employee's business judgment. If a supplier employee is a family relation (spouse, parent, sibling, grandparent, child, grandchild, mother- or father-in-law, or same or opposite sex domestic partner) to an employee of The Coca-Cola Company, or if a supplier has any other relationship with an employee of The Coca-Cola Company that might represent a conflict of interest, the supplier should disclose this fact to The Coca-Cola Company or ensure that the Coca-Cola employee does so.

Gifts, Meals and Entertainment

Employees of The Coca-Cola Company are prohibited from accepting anything more than modest gifts, meals and entertainment from suppliers. Ordinary business meals and small tokens of appreciation such as gift baskets at holiday time generally are fine, but suppliers should avoid offering Coca-Cola employees travel, frequent meals or expensive gifts. Gifts of cash or cash equivalents, such as gift cards, are never allowed.

* This document is applicable to suppliers of The Coca-Cola Company and its majority-owned subsidiaries. Use of the terms "The Coca-Cola Company" and "the Company" in this document refers to The Coca-Cola Company or one or more of its subsidiaries, whichever is relevant to the particular supplier relationship.

Business and Financial Records

Both the supplier and The Coca-Cola Company must keep accurate records of all matters related to the supplier's business with The Coca-Cola Company. This includes the proper recording of all expenses and payments. If The Coca-Cola Company is being charged for a supplier employee's time, time records must be complete and accurate. Suppliers should not delay sending an invoice or otherwise enable the shifting of an expense to a different accounting period.

Bribery

Suppliers acting on behalf of The Coca-Cola Company must comply with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, as well as all local laws dealing with bribery of government officials. In connection with any transaction as a supplier to The Coca-Cola Company, or that otherwise involves The Coca-Cola Company, the supplier must not transfer anything of value, directly or indirectly, to any government official, employee of a government-controlled company, or political party, in order to obtain any improper benefit or advantage. Suppliers must keep a written accounting of all payments (including any gifts, meals, entertainment or anything else of value) made on behalf of The Coca-Cola Company, or out of funds provided by The Coca-Cola Company. Suppliers must furnish a copy of this accounting to The Coca-Cola Company upon request.

Protecting Information

Suppliers should protect the confidential information of The Coca-Cola Company. Suppliers who have been given access to confidential information as part of the business relationship should not share this information with anyone unless authorized to do so by The Coca-Cola Company. Suppliers should not trade in securities, or encourage others to do so, based on confidential information received from The Coca-Cola Company. If a supplier believes it has been given access to The Coca-Cola Company's confidential information in error, the supplier should immediately notify its contact at the Company and refrain from further distribution of the information.

Similarly, a supplier should not share with anyone at The Coca-Cola Company information related to any other company if the supplier is under a contractual or legal obligation not to share the information.

Reporting Potential Misconduct

Suppliers who believe that an employee of The Coca-Cola Company, or anyone acting on behalf of The Coca-Cola Company, has engaged in illegal or otherwise improper conduct, should report the matter to the Company. The supplier can contact the employee's manager or The Coca-Cola Company Ethics & Compliance Office at +1-404-676-5579 or compliance@na.ko.com, or use the Company's EthicsLine reporting service at www.KOethics.com, or call toll-free using the access codes that can be found on the EthicsLine website. A supplier's relationship with The Coca-Cola Company will not be affected by an honest report of potential misconduct.

If the valued-partner is to be renewed, the Engaging Manager/BPOC must provide written approval to the PIAP Office. The valued-partner will complete an updated criminal history check for the period of time since the last check was conducted. The updated report will be submitted to the PIAP Office utilizing the same process as the initial Access Clearance for validation review.

6. Network Access Agreements (NAA)

NAA Clearance will include:

- Criminal Records Check: This check will include state criminal records checks. It will cover all jurisdictions in which the person has worked and lived over the last 5 years. State record searches will be conducted for felony and misdemeanor records. If state records are not available, county by county searches are required.

The adjudicative standards are not intended to be an inflexible set of rules and procedures. They require common sense judgment with each case examined on its own merits, taking into consideration all relevant circumstances, leading to a fair and impartial decision. The adjudicator must give overriding consideration to the interests of The Coca-Cola Company and should grant Access or NAA clearances only when evidence clearly exists of high moral standing and trustworthiness. It is a business necessity that only those of demonstrated personal integrity be placed at TCCC or given sensitive access.

- Valued-Partner employees who misrepresent, omit, or falsify prior convictions should be disqualified for placement at TCCC by the valued-partner company.
- Valued-Partner employees who have repeat offenses should be disqualified for placement at TCCC by the vendor company.
- For jobs involving direct contact with customers or the public, careful consideration should be given to any criminal activity reported. (Please consult with the PIAP Office).

8. Basis for Denial

The basis for denial provided below establish some of the types of conduct that can justify a determination to deny an individual's eligibility for employment, or appointment to sensitive duties. The "mitigating factors" establish some circumstances that may alleviate the impact of the conduct listed under the "basis for denial."

| Type of Conduct | Bases for Denial | Mitigating Factors |
|---|--|--|
| Criminal Conduct | Conviction of, or plea of guilty or nolo contendere, to a felony. For crimes not amounting to a felony, General Adjudicative Guidelines will be considered. If on probation/parole due to a conviction then defer consideration of placement at TCCC until the final disposition. Status of current participant in a pretrial probation or alternative rehabilitative program must be completed prior to placement at TCCC. Pending charges for criminal conduct will defer placement at TCCC until final disposition. | The felonious conduct (a) did not involve a violent offense against another person; (b) was an isolated episode; and (c) the individual has demonstrated trustworthiness and respect for the law over an extended period (generally seven years) since the offense. |
| Financial Matters | Excessive indebtedness, as indicated by recurring financial difficulties, or a high level of debt without the ability to pay it off. (Note: Pursuant to the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, an employer cannot reject an applicant for employment solely because the individual has been or is in bankruptcy.) Refer to financial information on previous page. | (a) Evidence of systematic efforts over a period of time (generally two years) to satisfy creditors; and (b) evidence of a change to a more responsible life-style and favorable change in financial habits over a period of time (generally two years); or (c) unforeseen financial loss not due to the individual's financial mismanagement. |
| Falsification | Knowingly falsifying, omitting, or misrepresenting a fact in any written or oral statement, document, or form used by the Company in its decision to employ or grant access to sensitive material, or concealing or omitting a material fact for the purpose of misleading the Company. | The incident was isolated and the individual subsequently provided correct information voluntarily. |
| Illegal Drug Involvement | Past or current illegal drug use, sale or distribution. (Note: Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, past drug addiction, that may be indicated by past treatment, should not be used as factor in any employment decision.) | The illegal drug involvement was not recent (not within five years); or (b) the drug involvement was an isolated or infrequent event and did not include the sale or distribution of illegal drugs. Illegal drug involvement not amounting to a felony will be adjudicated under the General Adjudicative Guidelines. |
| Drug Screen | Positive/Adulterated | None |
| Motor Vehicle Violations | More than two (2) moving violations during the prior three (3) years. More than one (1) at-fault accident in the prior three (3) years. Any of the following incidents in the prior three (3) years (including convictions and nolo contendere): vehicular homicide, hit and run, DUI, attempting to elude a police officer, engaging in a contest of speed, driving with a revoked or suspended license, leaving the scene of an accident, or reckless driving. | Apply General Adjudicative Guidelines. |
| Work Performance Issues | Includes but not exclusive to the following: Routine tardiness or chronic absenteeism; below standard of performance in previous job; reason for leaving was due to extreme circumstances; personal reference provides derogatory information regarding the candidate. | Must be referred to HR and Legal for final decision. |
| Other Factors Affecting an Individual's Integrity or Standing in the Community | Public knowledge of activities that could embarrass or damage the Image and Reputation of the Company. | Apply General Adjudicative Guidelines. |
